

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 6, 2020

Tyler Dunegan Reappointed to Serve on National League of Cities' Community and Economic Development Committee

WASHINGTON — January 6, 2020 — Tyler Dunegan, Council Member, Osceola, Arkansas, has been reappointed to the National League of Cities (NLC) 2020 Community and Economic Development (CED) federal advocacy committee. This committee has the lead responsibility for developing NLC's federal policy positions on issues involving housing, community and economic development, land use, recreation and parks, historic preservation and international competitiveness. The appointment was announced by NLC President Joe Buscaino, councilmember, Los Angeles, California.

"It is such an honor to be selected to serve with elected officials from across the United States to discuss important economic development issues," said Council Member Dunegan. "I am looking forward to providing guidance and the development of policies that will have a positive impact on Osceola and communities across the US. I am most excited to give Osceola a voice at the table and to direct positive attention to our great community."

As a committee member, Dunegan will play a key role in shaping NLC's policy positions and advocate on behalf of America's cities and towns before Congress, with the Trump administration, and at home.

"NLC's federal advocacy committees ensure policymakers in Washington understand the most pressing issues facing local communities," said Joe Buscaino, councilmember of Los Angeles, California, and president of the National League of Cities (NLC). "I am proud to have Council Member Dunegan join NLC's Community and Economic Development committee on behalf of the residents of Osceola. Together, with a team of local officials from across the country, we will strengthen the federal-local partnership, and ultimately create stronger cities, towns and villages."

The leadership of this year's committee will consist of Chair Kevin Thompson, Councilmember, Mesa, Arizona, Vice Chair Kristopher Dahir, Councilman, Sparks, Nevada, and Vice Chair Emmett Jordan, Mayor, Greenbelt, Maryland.

For more information on NLC's federal advocacy committees, visit:
www.nlc.org/advocacy/committees.

###

The National League of Cities (NLC) is dedicated to helping city leaders build better communities. NLC is a resource and advocate for 19,000 cities, towns and villages, representing more than 218 million Americans. www.nlc.org